Brilliant Flames No. 24 Chevrolet SS* returns to the Brickyard!

Axalta Racing is back for the 20th Anniversary of the Inaugural Brickyard 400

Glen Mills, PA—July 25, 2014—After a nine-race break, Axalta Coating Systems returns with Brilliant Flames to the famed Indianapolis Motor Speedway Sunday, July 27, 2014 for the NASCAR® Sprint Cup Series race.

With four Brickyard 400 wins, four-time Sprint Cup Series champion, Jeff Gordon has his sights set on a fifth victory at the 2.5 mile oval, which is the world's largest sporting venue. This year's race marks the 20th anniversary of the inaugural Brickyard 400 in 1994, won by Gordon who grew up in nearby Pittsboro, Indiana.

Leading the points for most of the season, the No. 24 Axalta Chevrolet SS brilliantly enters this weekend ahead of the pack. "Indy is such a special place," says Wade Robinson, Axalta Strategic Marketing and Racing Director. "We have BIG things planned for this weekend with great customers and a winning team. And we're hopeful that Jeff's streak of good runs at this track has us all "kissing the bricks." We paint winners!"

Axalta Coating Systems is "The Official Finish" of Hendrick Motorsports.
