

Specialized OEM

Special products want special colours to underline their unique status. Specialist manufacturers of sports and luxury cars often only have small production runs. Our job is to provide the range of colours and performance benefits they want even for small volumes.

Axalta Coating Systems offers specialised OEMs a wide range of colour options. We are able to design colours on demand while our mixing machine concept makes for a very adaptable logistics solution.

Related Products

> Imron Waterborne